Enclosure No. 1.

The temple of Lakshmeekantha Swamy at Hedathale in the Nanjangud Taluk, which is endowed with a fixed monthly allowance of Rs 9-9-8, is in need of repairs. When the Amildar last visited the place on annual duty work,

I write to Mr

On the above mentioned

the villagers prayed that the temple might be caused to be repaired by Government, and on being informed that unless they Contributed half of the Cost of repairs the Government would not Sanction the work, they readily Consented to do so, and paid up Rs 1000/ being the moiety of the Estimated Cost Rs 2000-0-0, and the amount is held in the Savings Bank deposit

The Tahsildar states that Hedahalli is a large village and that the temple, though endowed with a small Jaradi, is a long Standing one requiring early repairs.

The undersigned begs that Sanction may be obtained to the Estimate herewith Submitted.

His docket no 655 of the 15th November 1901 returning the completion bill in respect of the repairs to the Sri Lakshmi Kanta Swamis temple at Kedatale, Nanjangud taluk.

In resubmitting the completion bill above referred to, and soliciting a re-grant from the current year's Inam Budget, of Rs 100/- which had been sanctioned in Govt Proceedings no 1058-9 dated 11th April 1900, but which lapsed in consequence of the work not having been completed before the said official year, has the honor to state that the estimate for the work was sanctioned by Government in April 1900, or about 2 months before the end of the official year, and that, owing to the difficulty in procuring labor in consequence of plague, it was not possible to complete the work in about 2 months.
